

The night of the Angels

A fire is burnin'
And it shows me the calm
Before a day
That will be full of light
A light will burn
The sun is sitting behind the night
Ooh man!

BRIDGE

(Touch me one) come down from paradise
(Touch me twice) I'll pay every price
(Give your hands) and your sense of divine

RIT

Don't fly away, only today
There are magic goddess' waves
So you will see an endless thunder
In the night of the angels
Let the wind take away your lies
You no needs any wings to fly
So you will be tender-minded
In the night of the angels

A tale of angels
There ain't a sign of time
Wings of salvation
Come down inside a new temptation
A sound of angels
Bring you beck stronger' n' stronger
Ooh man!

(Touch me one) come down from paradise
(Touch me twice) I'll pay every price
(Give your hands) and your sense of divine

Don't fly away, only today
There are magic goddess' waves
So you will see an endless thunder
In the night of the angels
Let the wind take away your lies
You no needs any wings to fly
So you will be tender-minded
In the night of the angels
