

When the world

This time is colder the night
The moon smiles at the city's light
But someone doesn't know this smile
Someone on the streets is crin'

BRIDGE

Everyday is harrowing, to see this pain I can't believe
Is there a god in every of us? I believe no more
Everything will waste away, we can't stifle the hope today
Never I can't stop the row, to rule myself

RIT

I won't run' n' hide to wait the time
When the world can join the men
We'll be free to smile you and I
When the world forgive every war
I've heard enough your lies
I've heard enough to many words about this time,
And there's no time

Somewhere he was lookin' for
An happy soul an happy world
'Cause no one can rule his tomorrow
No one can ever rule his sorrow

Everyday is harrowing, to see this pain I can't believe
Is there a god in every of us? I believe no more
Everything will waste away, we can't stifle the hope today
Never I can't stop the row, to rule myself

RIT

I won't run' n' hide to wait the time
When the world can join the men
We'll be free to smile you and I
When the world forgive every war

SOLO

RIT

I won't run' n' hide to wait the time
When the world can join the men
We'll be free to smile you and I
When the world forgive every war
