

Wild young

I'm lost in the dark
In the dull 'n' gloomy city of mine
I'm the only alive
And no one know the secrets of mine

BRIDGE

'cause the last time, I almost passed you by
and my coldness, cut you inside
my heart was like a stone, and my right was your wrong
so your loneliness, freezes your blood

RIT

I'm a wild young in a corner of the land
I'm a wild fire since I'm burnin' on the earth
I'm a wild young brave in the night
I'm a wild fire who break into light

I'm only in the dark
I go on walking deep into the night
I don't wanna dream
It's my temper who blows me like a leaf

BRIDGE

'cause the last time, I almost passed you by
and my coldness, cut you inside
so your loneliness, freezes your blood

I'm a wild young in a corner of the land
I'm a wild fire since I'm burnin' on the earth
I'm a wild young brave in the night
I'm a wild fire who break into light

SOLO

RIT

I'm a wild young in a corner of the land
I'm a wild fire since I'm burnin' on the earth
I'm a wild young brave in the night
I'm a wild fire who break into light
